

South African Qualifications Authority

What the moderators and verifiers commit themselves to

This verification is being carried out by the South African Qualifications Authority (SAQA) which has appointed three senior verifiers to oversee the process.

Each person, by participating in the exercise, commits her or himself to the highest level of professionalism and confidentiality in their conduct. Each moderator and verifier is accountable to SAQA for the duration of this exercise.

All moderators and verifiers are required to:

- Be unbiased and free of prejudice when moderating and verifying the LAPs.
- Complete all moderating and verifying according to these guidelines.
- Refrain from discussing and comparing learners' work and commenting on the work of classes and coordination districts.
- Recuse themselves from moderating or verifying any LAP or set of LAPs of which they have prior knowledge or responsibility or in which they have an interest.
- Refrain from altering the LAPs in any way.
- Abide by the arrangements made for the proper conduct of the verification sessions by adhering to instructions of and the times set by the senior verifiers

Commitment acceptance

I have read and understood this page and the demands it makes on me:

Name: _____

Signature: _____ Date: 2__ March 2010